

CFL We'reWolf & Lazarex Cancer-Crushing Coast to Coast Run Heels In The Gulf, Toes In The Atlantic

The toughest of the Central Florida We'reWolves have teamed up once again with Lazarex Cancer Foundation to provide financial help for end stage cancer patients going through clinical trials. We are putting our heels in the waters of Florida's Gulf Coast and ending with our toes in the Atlantic. The start is still being determined, but we will be finishing at the shell stage at Daytona Beach. We will be running over 200 miles. Here is the course: www.ragnarrelay.com

On the morning of July 3rd, 2010, four of the Central Florida We'reWolves and one crazy runner from Seattle (also a Lazarex employee) will be running over 200 miles across the state of Florida. This will be the most intense run that the wolves will have experienced. This is a showing of the abilities of the mind and body put through tremendous extremes. The reason however, is bigger than all of us.

Cancer is prevalent. Many people either have it or know of someone that suffers from it. Treatments are expensive and often life changing in themselves. When someone with cancer is told they have exhausted their treatment options, Lazarex Cancer Foundation will help identify promising new treatments in FDA approved clinical trials and provide financial assistance for the costs associated with being in a clinical trial. Too often the expense to travel or stay away from home (like airfare, lodging, transportation, etc.) prevents a cancer patient from pursuing a clinical trial option.

By donating to this cause and our run, YOU will help to pay for those bills. YOU will make a difference in the lives of mothers, daughters, fathers, sons, grandparents, uncles, aunts, best friends, husbands, and wives. YOU will be reaching out and helping another human. Eighty seven cents ($0.87) of each dollar goes directly to patient services.

DONATE ANY AMOUNT that you desire. Less than a dollar and up, anything is graciously appreciated. Use this link to make your donation: Donate/TeamforLife/CFLWereWolves
